- b. Reporting procedures are easy to understand and the roles and responsibilities of leadership clearly defined and promoted within the organisation.

Identifying child abuse

- (21) Students (and their families), staff, volunteers, contractors or visitors to Melbourne Polytechnic may have reasonable grounds for believing a child or young person who comes to the attention of a member of Melbourne Polytechnic community in the course of their employment, study, research or other connection to the institute, needs protection, including in any of the following circumstances:
- a. Where there are reasonable concerns about harm to a child.
 - b. Physical abuse of, or non-accidental or unexplained injury to, a child.
 - c. A disclosure of sexual abuse by a child or witness, or a combination of factors suggesting the likelihood of sexual abuse, such as the child exhibiting concerning behaviours.
 - d. Emotional or psychological abuse and ill treatment of a child impacting on the child's stability and healthy development.
 - e. Persistent neglect, poor care or lack of appropriate supervision where there is a likelihood of significant harm to the child, or the child's stability and development.
 - f. Persistent family violence or parental substance misuse, psychiatric illness or intellectual disability where there is a likelihood of significant harm to the child, or the child's stability and development.

Child Safety Policy

- g. Where a child's actions or behaviour may place them at risk of significant harm and the parents or caregivers are unwilling, or unable to protect the child.
- h. Where a child appears to have been abandoned, or where the child's parents are deceased or incapacitated and no other person is caring properly for the child.
- i. Grooming of a child under 16 years of age by a person aged 18 years or older.

Note: Definitions as defined by the World Health Organisation relating to types of child abuse can be found at the Australian Institute of Family Studies.

Child Safety Reporting requirements

- (22) As a member of the Melbourne Polytechnic team all staff have an obligation under state laws to report offences of child abuse or harm. Concerns regarding suspected or actual abuse of children by a Melbourne Polytechnic must be reported promptly to the Child Safety Officer.
- (23) Any abuse or misconduct towards children and young people, will be dealt with by Melbourne Polytechnic in accordance with the applicable laws and the MP Code of Conduct and referred to the police or child protection authorities as appropriate.

Failure to disclose requirements

- (24) According to the Victorian Government requirements, all adults who have a reasonable belief that an adult (a person 18 year or older) has committed a sexual offence of a minor under the age of 16 have an obligation to report any information they have to the Victorian Police. It is a criminal offense if you do not report unless the person has reasonable circumstances for not reporting in a timely manner.
- (25) The Child and Wellbeing Safety Act 2005 requires that, where a reasonable belief exists that a child is at risk, it must be reported as soon as practicable. Reasonable belief includes any event, incident or disclosure including a child stating they have been abused.
- (26) A reasonable explanation for not disclosing includes fear for your safety or the safety of another person (other than the person believed to have committed the sexual offence), or belief that the information has already been disclosed to the Victoria police and/or Child protection.

Failure to protect requirements:

- (27) This offense can apply if a person in authority at an educational institute which cares for children or young people 16 and under fails to reduce or remove any substantial risk of a child, that can become the victim of a sexual offense from someone over the age of 18 who is associated with the educational institute. A failure to protect a minor from substantial risk is a criminal offense.
- (28) The organisation must take reasonable actions to ensure a child's safety where an imminent threat or risk exists. Where a child is deemed to be at immediate risk, it is the responsibility of the organisation and mandated reporters to ensure the child's immediate safety. This includes protecting the child from any further risk or harm by removing the alleged staff member or other adult from having further contact with the child.

Child Safety Policy

Mandatory Reporting Requirements

- (29) The Child Youth and Families Act 2005 imposes an obligation under Mandatory Reporting which requires registered teachers, school principals, psychologists, social workers, medical practitioners, nurses, midwives, youth or child workers (welfare/justice), and police officers to make a report to Child Protection if they form a reasonable belief that a child is in need of protection from physical injury and/or sexual abuse, while acting in the course of their employment or professional duties, they reasonably form the belief that a child is in need of protection. It is a criminal offence to not comply.
- (30) It is a requirement under the Child, Youth and Family Act 2005 that all Melbourne Polytechnic registered teachers are mandated to report any concerns, for the wellbeing of children and young people to the appropriate authorities and the Melbourne Polytechnic Child Safety Officer.
- (31) All mandated staff are required under the Child, Youth and Families Act 2005 to report to external authorities including Victoria Police by and Child Protection 13 12 78 as appropriate on each occasion where a reasonable belief is formed. The report must be made as soon as practical upon forming such a belief. It is the reporter's responsibility to make the notification whether or not senior staff in the organisation support the belief. In the event that another member of staff has undertaken to make a notification, the Act requires that the mandated staff member follow through and ensure that this has been reported to authorities, the Victoria Police and/or Child Protection as per the Four Critical Actions Process: Four Critical Actions Process

Reportable Conduct Scheme Reporting Requirements

- (32) The Victorian Reportable Conduct Scheme \(RCS\) imposes obligations under the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005 on the Head of organisations to report child abuse by any Melbourne Polytechnic staff member or volunteer to the Commission for Children and Young People.
- (33) All employee's and/or volunteers over the age of 18 years in Victoria are required to report if they become aware of any allegations of sexual offences, sexual misconduct, physical violence, and behaviour that causes significant psychological or emotional harm or significant neglect against a child to police under section 327 of the Crimes Act 1958 \(Vic\). It is a criminal offence to not comply with this requirement.
- (34) Concerns regarding suspected or actual abuse of children by a Melbourne Polytechnic staff or volunteers must be reported promptly to the appropriate internal personnel (Child Safety Officer or Chief Executive).
- (35) Any misconduct towards children and young people, will be dealt with by Melbourne Polytechnic in accordance with the Code of Conduct and referred to the police where appropriate. Concerns regarding suspected or actual abuse of children must be reported promptly to the appropriate internal personnel (Child Safety Officer) as well as external authorities including Victoria Police by calling 000 and/or Child Protection 13 12 78 as appropriate.

Grooming Laws

- (36) The Crimes Amendment (Grooming) Act 2014 introduces the offence of Grooming for sexual conduct with a child under the age of 16 years. This offence targets predatory conduct designed to facilitate later sexual activity with a child. Grooming can be conducted in person or online, for example via interaction through social media, web forums and emails.

(37) Many perpetrators of sexual offences against children purposely create relationships with victims, their families or carers in order to create a situation where abuse could occur. For this reason, parents, carers or other family members who have been targeted by perpetrators in order to gain access to a child are also victims.

(38) Grooming is a criminal offense and against the law and must be reported to Victoria Police.

Privacy Laws

(39) Students, staff and volunteers must respect confidentiality and comply with the Privacy Policy when dealing with suspected child abuse. Details of the case and the identity of the child and their family will be recorded and will only be discussed with those directly involved in the management of the child's situation and to meet the reporting obligations set out in this policy and in the legislation. Advice may be sought from the Melbourne Polytechnic Privacy Officer.

How to report child abuse concerns:

(40) Where a child is deemed to be at immediate risk on campus, Campus security should also be called, and the child protected and removed from any immediate harm.

(41) In a situation of grave and immediate life threatening risk to a child, staff, students and associates must notify police immediately by telephone on 000.

(42) If there is a risk to the immediate safety of a child (non-life-threatening), staff, students or associates should immediately telephone Child Protection in their local government area (business hours) or the Child Protection Crisis Line after hours on 13 12 78.

(43) Child Protection will only investigate if the abuse is by an adult against a child aged under 16 years. In relation to all child abuse concerns, staff, students and associates must:

- a. Follow the Victorian Department of Education and Training's Four Critical Actions in responding to incidents, disclosures and suspicions of child abuse.
- b. Report child abuse concerns to Melbourne Polytechnic Child Safety Officer and/or seek advice on how to make an external report.
- c. Report their child abuse concerns to external authorities as soon as possible.
- d. Comply with all applicable mandatory and legal reporting requirements by reporting suspected child abuse matters to Child Protection and/or the Victorian Police; and

 - g. Child Safety Officer: designated roles within Melbourne Polytechnic who support and assist staff and students with understanding their reporting obligations and the process.
 - h. Child Protection: An activity or initiative designed to protect children from all forms of harm, particularly arising from child abuse.
 - i. Contact with Children: Working on an activity with children that involves or may involve contact, either under the position description or due to the nature of the work environment.
 - j. Cultural Safety: Is an environment, which is safe for children, where there is no assault, challenge or denial of their identity, of who they are and what they need.
 - k. Grooming: A criminal offence which concerns predatory conduct undertaken to prepare a child for sexual activity at a later time. The offence applies where an adult communicates, by words or conduct, with a child under the age of 16 years or with a person who has care, supervision or authority for the child with the intention of facilitating the child's involvement in sexual conduct, either with the groomer or another adult.
 - l. Mandatory Reporting: The legal requirement placed on Victorian Registered Teachers to report suspected cases of child abuse and neglect
 - m. Personnel: are either employed by an organisation, engaged by an organisation on a subcontract basis, or engaged by an organisation on a voluntary or unpaid basis
 - n. Reasonable Belief: When staff are concerned about the safety and wellbeing of a child or young person, they must assess that concern to determine if a report should be made to the relevant agency. This process of considering all relevant information and observations is known as forming a 'reasonable belief'. A 'reasonable belief' or a 'belief on reasonable grounds' is not the same as having proof but is more than mere rumour or speculation. A 'reasonable belief' is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds
