ADULT LITERACY AND BASIC EDUCATION (ALBE)

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN IMPROVING YOUR READING, WRITING OR NUMERACY SKILLS?

WE CAN HELP!

The Melbourne Polytechnic Foundation Studies Department offers the:

Adult Literacy and Basic Education (ALBE) Program provides classes designed for people who have difficulties with reading, writing, spelling or understanding numeracy problems. Computer skills are also taught as part of an integrated curriculum.

Students enrol for 15-20 hours per week in the Certificate of General Education for Adults.

Koorie students who are eligible pay only 20% of the government course amount. Check with the Koorie Services Centre

Foundation Studies and the Koorie Services Centre is here to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in their educational journey at Melbourne Polytechnic.
